

On page 3, in the sentence starting at line 17 and ending at line 19:

The sleeve may also be effectively closed off on all four edges and instead have an intermediate access opening, for example a slit portion (like those in tissue boxes) through which the napkins can be pulled out for use.

On page 7, in the sentence starting at line 6 and ending at line 8:

Alternatively, all the edges may be closed and an intermediate access opening or slit portion 18, as conceptually shown in Fig. 7, may be incorporated into the sleeve 14.

On page 9, first and currently only paragraph, amend the paragraph as follows:

It should be understood that the preceding is merely a detailed description of one or more embodiments of this invention and that numerous changes to the disclosed embodiments can be made in accordance with the disclosure herein without departing from the spirit and scope of the invention. Especially given the nature of how paper products and plastic bags can be manufactured, there are many equivalent structures contemplated by the scope of the present invention in which, the formed sleeve (pocket) can be made, for example, overlapping ends of the paper or plastic product to form the sleeve. It is also understood that the sleeve or pocket can hold other food accessory items as well, such as ketchup packets, salt and pepper packets, etc., and in application, the invention described herein is not limited to holding napkins. The preceding description, therefore, is not meant to limit the scope of the invention. Rather, the scope of the invention is to be determined only by the appended claims and their equivalents.
